

Deputy Chief of Party Recruitment USAID Democracy and Governance Programs Sri Lanka

Management Sciences for Development, Inc. (MSD) is an international development consulting firm committed to building justice sector institutions that support a culture of respect for the rule of law and promoting and protecting the rights of marginalized communities. MSD's programs encompass three priority program areas: justice sector reform, human rights, and civil society strengthening.

MSD seeks experienced Deputy Chief of Party candidates for the upcoming USAID-funded Increased Responsiveness in the Legal System Program in Sri Lanka. Desired areas of expertise include:

- Seven years experience as COP/DCOP for USAID- or other donor-funded justice sector projects in Asia;
- Advanced degree in law, public administration or international development;
- Experience working collaboratively with government officials, international donors and community organizations;
- Excellent written and oral communication skills;
- Demonstrated skills in project and contract management;
- Professional fluency in English;
- US Citizenship is not required.

Responsibilities will include: providing leadership, management, and technical direction, especially in the areas of access to justice, legal aid, public awareness and civil society grants; supervising project technical and administrative staff; and facilitating project linkages with USAID and counterpart organizations.

Interested candidates should submit a resume, cover letter, and three references to recruitment@msdglobal.com by January 18, 2012.